THE HOME COMING.

They are coming, our young heroes,
Crowned with victory triumphant,
From their fight for liberty;
Sister, sweetheart, wife, and mother,
Wait with eager hearts and tender,
For the loved ones o'er the sea.

They have borne the starry banner,
They've upheld our country's honor
On many a gory field;
They have forced the Hunnish foe—
Him of thousand acts inhuman—
To the power of right to yield.

Some there are who're not returning,
Some for whom sad hearts are yearning—
They have fallen in the fray;
'Neath the soil of France they're sleeping,
O'er their graves the lilies weeping—
Waiting the last reveille.

They have won a fame immortal,
They have opened the shining portal
Of a freer world to be;
They—our nation's pride and glory—
Let the future tell the story.
How they died to make men free.

FAIRBAULT, MINN.,
January, 1919

Seattle, Wash.

The Seattle Division of the Frats held their annual election in December. Messrs. W. S. Root, A. K. Wangh and Olof Hanson were nominated for the presidency, but Root and Wangh declined to be candidates and Mr. Hanson was elected. Other officers elected were: Vice-President, C. K. McConnell; Secretary, A. W. Wright; Treasurer, L. O. Christensen; Director, Leonard Rasmussen; Sergeant, William West; Trustee, John Bodley.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Larson now in a cozy cottage on 25th Avenue, near Madison Street.

Report has it that Chas. Guaman will make a trip to war-torn France the coming summer.

Claude Hollinger and Miss Jessie Livingstone, of Belmont, were married recently, and are just back from an extended honeymoon trip through the State.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hawley spent the holidays visiting relatives in Portland.

A new son has come to gladden the home of Rev. Gaertner, who has charge of the Local Mission for the deaf. The P. S. A. D. remembered Rev. Gaertner with a ten-dollar gold piece as a Christmas present.

Harry Landeryou has decided that his education is not complete yet, so has returned to Monroe, where he will attend school for a few years more. We understand, he will take a course in motor truck driving and repairing.

Miss Jessie Busby, of Utah, is visiting her sister here, but expects to soon return to her old home in Utah.

Miss Elsie Peterson of the Vancouver School, spent the Christmas vacation in Seattle.

Louis Barth, of Mt. Vernon, is one of the new recruits in Seattle shipyards.

Frank Kelly, who has been working in the shipyards at Aberdeen for the past year, has returned to Port Angeles and is now employed in the big sawmill at that place.

Three former Vancouver girls, the Misses Lilla Stevernagel, Adlie Medley and Hattie McMillan, are now employed at the Idaho School.

Cortland Greenwald is now working in a casket factory in Portland.

Ralph Pickett, when last heard from, was working in a sawmill at Bend, Oregon.

E. Cosgrove, recently from Minnesota, grew tired of Seattle and migrated to Portland, but a few days saw him repentant and he is once more one of the Seattle shipyard workers.

Misses Jennie and Bella Campbell, of Victoria, B. C., spent their Christmas vacation in Seattle.

N. C. Garrison and family are now sojourning in Port Angeles, but expect to return to Seattle in another month.

Dr. Olof Hanson, who has been in Iowa and Nebraska for some months, has returned to Seattle, and we understand he has had no trouble in finding immediate employment.

The Spanish Influenza has so far claimed four victims among the deaf in this State, all being from Spokane. They are Mr. and Mrs. Rose Slightam, Mrs. Baldwin and Mrs. Fischer, formerly of Portland.

Many of the local deaf have been down with the Flu, but we are glad to say all recovered. Among those whose names we learned, A. W. Wright and three children, N. C. Garrison, Bryan Wilson, and the hearing daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gustin.

S. Raison, a recent arrival from London, England, is now working as a driller at the North Pacific shipyards. Ben Wallace, of Ferule, B. C., and H. F. Bishop, of Boulder, Mont., are also employed there in company with about twenty other deaf. The North Pacific Yard is the third largest steel shipyard on the coast.

James Turner, of Colfax, is now gracing Seattle with his presence. Joseph Kizinger and Robert Brown, of St. Louis, are the newest to enroll in Seattle's army of shipyard workers.

James Ecker and wife, of Elma, spent the holidays in Seattle.

John Gerson, of Tacoma, visited in Seattle recently.

Messrs. Brinkman, of Iowa, and Chase, of Montana, are recent arrivals in Seattle.

The Puget Sound Association of the Deaf will hold its annual election of new officers in February. The association has made splendid progress in the past year with W. S. Root as President.

The Gallaudet Correspondent in the JOURNAL hits the nail on the head, when he defines the Buff and Blue as an educational medium, and we believe that the college would suffer a far greater loss through the abolishment of the JOURNAL column than could possibly be gained by trying to force those fond of an occasional college letter to subscribe for the Buff and Blue.

More even, as the Buff and Blue is a monthly, it would be impossible for the little happenings which now find their way in the JOURNAL column weekly, to be chronicled in the limited space a department in the Buff and Blue offers.

KANSAS CITY, MO.

The Silent Athletic Club, newly organized, is going to make a great thing for the city. It has a Basketball team made up of Capt. Dillen Schneider, Conway, Horn, Johnson, Collier, Exodine, Riley, Rawlins and Hodges. The last three named are substitutes. They practice at the K. C. Athletic Club, and soon received challenges from every club in and outside of K. C. for games, and the Major League persuaded us to jump into the league, starting January 28th. They played against K. C. A. C. before, and won one out of three games. Horn is the latest addition to the team. Manager Riley went to Olathe, to arrange a game with the strong team of that institution, which is the Silent Athletic team's ambition to defeat this year.

Mr. Nilson, of Missouri, and Miss Lyman, of Oklahoma, were married in October, but kept it a secret until recently, and friends were surprised but happy to see them getting along nicely.

Chauncey Laughlin, having shifted the responsibility of the Frat secretariat to Horn, is now feeling easy to give more attention to his poultry, which promises to make big money this year.

Ernest Hyatt, of Alabama, declares Kansas City is a great town to live in, and intends to stay. He is now at the McClure Hospital, but is about to leave after three weeks' confinement.

Luther Taylor, Coach at Olathe, has not returned yet, after several weeks' stay by the bedside of his sick wife, who is in Akron.

Henry Johnson, afflicted with consumption, is going to be sent to Mt. Vernon Tuberculosis Hospital, where he will stay for treatment.

Street car strike, with dynamite orgs, blowing up cars passing over bombs laid on tracks, made it impossible for the deaf to have any social gathering since December 10th.

SAN FRANCISCO.

The first appearance of The Nugget, E. E. Visson's new paper, nearly caused a riot at Battery and Market Streets, on Saturday, January 11th.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Sullivan have both recovered after a slight attack of Influenza.

Mr. Carol Land, B. Ys Supervisor at the Berkeley School, is the latest of us to contract the flu. His case is reported to be slight.

J. Gabrielli wants to know why he gets a "funeral" notice whenever the C. A. D. board meets. What's the matter, Joe? Do you mean to insinuate that the C. A. D. is a dead one?

The wife and three daughters of J. Co way have been ill with Influenza and were nursed by John, himself, who steadily refuses to allow it to contaminate his person.

The case of Laurand Byer is another example of a person getting well too quickly. He is again on his back, after a second bout with Old Man Flu. If this keeps up, we will have to send for J. Frederiek to "throw" the Old Man and pin his shoulders to the mat.

Mr. Dodge, who worked at Sperry's Flour Mill in Vallejo, has gone to his home in Mendocino County to recover from the ravages of the prevalent plague.

The local Frats have been adding new members to their division at a great rate. At the monthly meeting on Saturday evening, January 11th, four new members were favorably voted upon. They were: John George Schmidt, Jr., (Duminy Smith), Wm. A. Tyhurst, C. O. Wright and J. Cole.

After the meeting of the Frats, N. E. Pike was asked to give an account of his hazardous adventures in Los Angeles. He said, "There is a part in every man's life that he doesn't like to talk about, but seeing that you have asked me to relate my experiences in that faraway place, I can do no more than comply with your request." And he did!

It has always been said that a good talker will certainly make his mark in the world. Yet nothing has ever been said of a good listener. The sympathetic listener will always find himself in great demand. Cultivate the art of listening.

"Splinter" Williams, our farmer from Potter Valley, made his appearance at Frat Hall at our January meeting. He left the Checker board Ranch by itself, just long enough to attend the Frat meeting on Saturday and the California Association Directors' meeting on Sunday.

When Williams was spied entering the Hall, such a noisy demonstration of affection was begun that the superintendent of the building wondered if a new war had started "Over Here."

Mr. F. W. Baars, Instructor of Printing at the Berkeley School, utilized part of his annual vacation by visiting Los Angeles. He met many old friends and a few new ones. Among the former was C. H. Doane, who now tries to disguise his manly beauty behind a shoe brush on his upper lip.

Among our out-of-town visitors during the holidays were Mr. and Mrs. Lynch, and Mr. Clemons Lopez, of Stockton; Don E. Glidden, of Tracy; and "Always hungry" Hartman, of Hollister.

Gold-Plated Items from The Nugget—

A baby boy was born to the wife of Mr. Henry Franck, of Berkeley, during the Christmas holidays.

John Connelly is now employed at the Western Meat Company, in South San Francisco.

Mr. Monroe Jacobs has sold out his printing office, and taken a job as a solicitor for one of the large printing plants in San Francisco.

George Smith, who has been working in a South San Francisco Stock Yard and who is known in fighting circles as "Dummy Smith," has received an offer of employment from the Universal Motion Pictures Company, Universal City, Los Angeles.

The letter says, in part:—"It is to be understood that this work is not steady. You are to be used in our fight scenes and will receive from $10 to $15 a scene. These scenes are taken two or three times a week." Smith can count himself as pretty lucky. Who wouldn't work for about three hours every other day for a salary of 30 to 45 dollars a week?

The Company is prepared to pay all his travelling expenses from here to Los Angeles. Smith will leave here some time in March.

Here's to your success, George! "San Francisco's Own" are coming home! The Fighting Ninety-First is composed of California boys, while the 363d Inf. is nearly all made up of San Francisco and Bay City men. Many have been decorated for bravery by Gen. "Jack" Pershing.

The division saw hard service in Argonne, along the Champagne and in Verdun. Local military authorities believe that the 363d Inf. of the 91st will be sent to San Francisco to be paraded and feted as a unit before being demobilized at the Presidio. Clarence Peterson, hearing brother of Lewis I. Peterson, of San Francisco, is one of the members of the regiment. Clarence was wounded, but is now on the road to recovery. Here's hoping that the two brothers unite before very long.

Every city, town, village and hamlet in the United States, celebrated New Year's Eve, with something more than that which had marked the coming of a new year in the past. Even Los Angeles celebrated.

The birth of 1919 was only an excuse to celebrate the new era of peace on earth. Heretofore all San Francisco began to quiet down at 2 A. M., but this year the Police Department notified the people that dancing on the streets would be permitted until 5 A. M. No use to go into a lengthy description. I have no use for them, anyway.

Read Price's description of Los Angeles' celebration, multiply it by ten billion, and you will have an inkling of what we did down here.

N. E. Pike found work almost as soon as he arrived here from Los Angeles. He is now a cylinder press feeder with the Hicks Judd Co., on First Street. Walter Hannan is another deaf man employed there.

The Directors of the California Association of the Deaf held a meeting at Frat Hall, on Sunday, January 12th.

Miss M. Corbett reports deep snow on the ground in LaPorte.

On a recent visit to the California School, we were glad to see that Mrs. Carol Land (NOT Lamb) has come successfully through her fight with Old Man Flu, and is up and about again.

The December issue of the Bital and Blue of Gallaudet reports that Mrs. Runde, of Berkeley, is matron of the large girls at the Berkeley School. This is news to us. Mrs. Runde was matron of the small boys in Moss Hall some years ago, but not any more, though, if the youngsters could have their choice of matrons, Mrs. Runde would be chosen unanimously.

Not having heard from Chimmy Meagher for quite a spell, we stop to inquire: Jimmy, how could you? Can't you hear Bro. Glison warbling? Where is my Wandering Boy To-night?

Mr. Wejing is a recent arrival in San Francisco. He joins the crowd at lunch time and has a good long talk. Lewis Peterson knew him when they worked in Pennsylvania.

On the death of Mr. J. Colonize, foreman of the laundry at the Berkeley School, Miss Pearce was recalled to take over the job until a new foreman could be found. Mr. Walderman is now holding the position. Miss Pearce is from the Colorado School, and is an old acquaintance of Mr. I. E. Milligan, principal of the Berkeley School.

FANWOOD.

Major Van Tassel received a letter from George Ferguson, a former pupil of the New York Institution who was a soldier in the Philippines during the Spanish-American War, and who enlisted and went overseas with the American Expeditionary Forces. He is a private in the 56th Pioneer Infantry, Company F, A. E. F. The letter was written on Christmas Day, and in part reads: "We have been hiking from France to Germany, and we are having a very good time in Germany. I have been laid up in a German Hospital—played-out from hiking all the way to the top of France. I wish you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. We can't tell when we will be home again, but I hope to see you again, and also Mr. Gardner. I know he would like to see me again."

Monday afternoon, January 20th, saw the Fuchs and Diazs in a bitter battle of basketball.

An unusual crowd occupied places in the gym, because they knew what kind of games the Diazs gave—all being good, whether they won or lost.

The captain, James McVernon, always carried out his boys to play like champions. It was something like a series of shows to see Wincig and Weisenstein guard against the opposing teams. They are tireless guards (tireless tooters of the band too) and they go after every ball that is thrown from a far distance to the boy standing near the goal.

Well, the game started with a good send-off, and in less than one-fourteen hundred and fortieth of a day (figure it out) McCarthy made a graceful shot. Both teams put the onlookers in an exciting mood—for neither team was in the lead with more than two points. The first half ended with neither in the lead—9-9 score. No one was too tired to play without taking a rest.

The second period began, and both teams clashed in a fast game and at the last minute, the Fuchs were ahead, 14-13. The Fuchs had the Diazs well guarded, but fortunately Wincig left his post and ran after the ball that was left loose, and straightway he aimed and shot in a goal a second before time was up. He was the hero of the game. The line up and summaries are below set up:—

| DIAZ (15) | FUCHS (14) |
|-----------|-----------------|
| Bylinski | L. F. Flitting |
| McCarthy | C. F. Sinclair |
| McVernon | C. Newman |
| Mazzola | L. G. B. ohen |
| Wincig | L. G. Skidelsky |

SUMMARIES: Field Goals—Bylinski 1, Wincig 1, McCarthy 3, McVernon 1, Flitting 3, Sinclair 1, B. Cohen 1, Paul Goals 1, McCarthy 2 out of 3, McVernon 1 out of 3, Newman 1 out of 3, B. Cohen 3 out of 6, Referee—Lieutenant Lux. Timekeeper—Miss Ma thews. Scorer—"Red" Bend. Corporal Goffin. Time of halves—fifteen minutes each.

Miss Jean Hollenberg, of Little Rock, Ark., and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Metcalfe, of Brooklyn, were the Tuesday guests of Mrs. I. B. Gardner. The band rendered a few selections.

Cadet Lieutenant James A. McVernon tried to knock the school building down recently, by bumping Cadet George Ryan into it.

Cadet Lieutenant Samuel Jampol has long endeavored to increase the size and strength of his biceps by the systematic use of dumb bells and Indian clubs from the hours 9 to 10 P. M. After considerable investigation, it was found that his object was to get even with Cadet Lieutenant Allen G. Cattanaeh who, during a practice bout in the gymnasium had accidentally hit Sam in the left optic, causing that member to swell up. Lieutenant Cattanaeh says it cannot be done.

Cadet Lieutenant James A. McVernon was the recent receiver of a letter, in which was enclosed a picture of a former tutor in the institution, Mr. William S. Olson, who enlisted in the army. The picture depicted him as a sunburned, sturdy looking young man, in over-seas clothes, and he could be seen to have the rank of corporal.

The Protean Society wishes to inquire through these columns as to the identity of the person that kindly left that box of delicious candy on their table one day. A reward ($1) will be given for the conviction of the anonymous person.

On Friday, the 24th of January, the Fanwood Seniors were scheduled to play a game with the De Witt Clinton Junior Basketball Team, which is well known in athletic circles in New York, but due to the fact that four of the latter's team were compelled to take examinations on that date, the game was postponed until the following Wednesday, which, unfortunately, makes it impossible to give the results in this week's issue of the JOURNAL. Full results will be given next week. This will be the first clash our boys have had this season, and we're out to win.

Cadet Gleischer received a letter dated December 8th, 1918, from Monheim, Germany, which he received on January 15th. It was from his brother, who stated that the Allies had won the war.

Lieutenant Band Leader William H. Edwards' wife was the recipient of a letter and silk souvenir from his brother, Mr. William Jones, a former tutor of this Institution. He is with the Canadian army overseas. We are proud to say that three of our tutors are in service, namely: Messrs. William S. Olson, William Jones and Abram H. Orser.

Miss Bertha Dissinger, formerly head tutor of the kindergarten, and who was engaged to the late E. H. Margraf, who was killed in action in France last August, was a visitor at the Institution twice during the week. Many boys who remembered her when they were in the kindergarten were immensely pleased to see her again.

Among a number of pieces that the band has been practicing lately are "Chopin's Funeral March," and "On! How I wish I could sleep until my Daddy comes home."

Something keeps us guessing why Anna Hoffman always has smile on her face—especially when she sees the Joffres play basketball. Cadet Lieut. Allen G. Cattanaeh has a clue and will find out.

On Friday, January 24th, the Joffres and Pershings played a very hot game of basketball in the gymnasium. The first half ended in a score of 7-6, in favor of the Pershings. But in the second half the Joffres came to their best, when Malloy and Whalen put all their efforts into the game. The score mounted rapidly for them and the game ended in a victory for the Joffres, by a majority of seven points. Altogether, with the exception of one game, this one was one of the most hard-fought games.

The other exception was the game between the Haigs and Diazs.

Score is appended:—

| PERSHING (19) | JOFFRES (19) |
|---------------|--------------|
| Stewart | R. F. Belsky |
| Coe | L. F. Malloy |
| Gabrielson | C. Whalen |
| Dembo | R. F. Grah |
| Lieberman | L. F. Zadra |

SUMMARIES: Substitutes—Rogerio for Whalen. Field Goals—Zach 2, Gabrielson 1, Whalen 4, Malloy 4. Four Goals—Dembo 1 out of 3, Lieberman 2 out of 3, Gabrielson 3 out of 6, Belsky 1 out of 3, Malloy 1 out of 2, Zadra 1 out of 2. Referee—Lieutenant Lux. Timekeeper—Cadet Private Stocker. Capt. of Haigs. Scorer—Cadet Band Corporal Goffin. Time of halves—fifteen and twenty minutes.

Last Saturday evening a reunion was held in the boys' and girls' study halls, and was the first reunion of the year 1919. Cadet Captain Roy W. Parsons and Clara Sylvester comprised the pupils, committee, and under their able management games and customs usual to all of our reunions went very smoothly. The most popular form of amusement indulged in was dancing, which started early, Cadet Captain B. Cohen leading.

When taps sounded at 9.30 every body went to the "Land of Nod," with recollections of a very happy evening.

On February 14th, which will be Valentine's Day, the band will go to Bridgeport, Ct., to participate in a deaf-mute affair. This will be our fourth consecutive trip out of New York City. The other places visited were Hartford, Ct., Tarrytown, N. Y., and Albany.

The basketball teams of Dr. Thomas F. Fox's High Class and Prof. Elwood A. Stevenson's afternoon Class clashed in a big game last Saturday morning, on the outdoor court. The cadets crowded around to see the game, and it was found that the latter team was strongly rooted for. They had stars of the tournament while the former team had only three. Cadet Lieutenant Allen G. Cattanaeh almost never played on a team, but did good to help the High Class team win. The game was ended with a 9-7 score.

Mr. Frederick Parker, a graduate of 1918, was a recent visitor in the Protean Room, of which he was a member. He is on the list of Honorary Members.

Through the kind invitation of Miss V. B. Gallaudet (the grand-daughter of the Rev. Thomas Hopkins Gallaudet, the founder of the first school for the deaf in America), the girls of the High Class heard their teacher, Dr. Thomas F. Fox, lecture at St. Ann's Church last Saturday evening.

Dr. Fox gave the regular Sunday morning sermon, using the 90th Psalm, 9th verse, as his text. He explained that the human mind can devise means by which all things are made possible. But one thing mortals cannot do, is to create a brain in an inanimate object such as a statue, automaton, etc. Each man's life is a tale, and if the tale of the brain could be related, no narrative ever written would surpass it.

Principal Gardner preached in the afternoon, and in his sermon cautioned us to refrain from cultivating the acquaintance of unknown people; and if we are so unfortunate so to do so, evil consequences are sure to result. "Appearances are deceitful," and many an undesirable character is hidden beneath a well-clothed and refined exterior.

Prof. William G. Jones gave us two short stories in the evening. They were of the mystery kind, and came from the pen of a French author, Jean D. Koek. They were thrilling and filled with the spirit that makes your heart change places with the larynx.

Miss Ida Bucher invited nine of the girls of the Adriatic Society to visit the Zigler Publishing Co. for the Blind, on Saturday morning last. They saw Miss McGerr, a blind and deaf girl, who was formerly a pupil at the Institution. The girls saw the various methods that are adopted for the use of the blind, that is, in printing books.

For the latest style in tonsorial decorations of the cranium, apply to Cadet Lieutenant Samuel Jampol, who is an authority in tonics, haircuts and various perfumes that the barber uses to extract the quarters and dollars from customers.

For the first time in the cadets' lives, they saw Major Van Tassel kick the soccer-ball around the boys' playground, last week.

Cadet Corporal Emil Mulfeldt tendered a party to nine of his friends in honor of his sixteenth birthday, last Monday evening.

JACK & "AL."

DEAF-MUTE BADLY HURT

John Harmon, a deaf-mute, 626 North Carey street, is in University Hospital suffering from the effects of a series of epileptic fits and probable fracture of the skull sustained when he was surprised leaving a sailor's room at 626 West Fayette street.

Roy L. Cooper, the sailor, and Ward Stockwell, a marine who was rooming with him at the Fayette street house, are held at the Fayette Police Station pending the result of Harmon's injuries. They ordered his arrest.

Cooper went to bed early Wednesday. When Stockwell returned home he found Harmon leaving the room. He smashed a bottle of whiskey over the mute's head and then had him arrested. A watch, some French money and $8 in United States money, missed by Cooper, were found on Harmon at the police station.

Before the desk he fell in a fit and had several more within a few hours. Physicians said his skull probably had been broken by Stockwell's blow.—Baltimore News, January 17, 1919.

FRANCIS MAGINN, B. D.

THE deaf people of Ireland have lost a good friend by the death of Mr. Francis Maginn, of Belfast, who died at his home in that city, on the 16th of last December, at the age of fifty-seven years.

For over thirty-five years he had been a Church of Ireland missionary to the deaf of Belfast and Ulster. He was a tireless worker—one who did his full duty with zeal, intelligence and devotion.

We of the United States of America have more than a passing interest in his honorable and useful career. He was known to many of the prominent deaf men and women of the United States, by reason of his connection as a student with Gallaudet College, which conferred on him the degree of Bachelor of Divinity. Quite a number of the deaf of this country knew him personally, and some of us have experienced the hospitality which he eagerly extended on the soil of his native land.

He spread the use of the American sign language throughout the length and breadth of Ireland, and weaned vast numbers of the deaf to the use of the one-handed alphabet. For in Ireland there is one peculiarity about the use of finger alphabets; the one-handed alphabet is used at the Institution at Cabra, in Dublin, which is conducted by Roman Catholics, but at the Belfast Institution, and other Protestant schools, the two-handed alphabet obtains.

Mr. Maginn preached the Gospel to the deaf at the Mission House in Belfast, which has a church extension to its spacious arrangements for charitable, benevolent and club purposes.

Mr. Maginn was well known and highly esteemed in England and Scotland, as well as Ireland. At all of the splendidly equipped and excellently managed Mission houses in Glasgow, Edinburgh, Liverpool, London, and other cities, he was always a personage of importance, and at various schools and Institutions for the education of the deaf throughout the British Isles he was ever a welcome visitor. Even at schools for the deaf of other creeds, such as that at Cabra, he was received with the most cordial friendliness. Such was his personal magnetism, his breadth of view, and his love for the "silent ones" to whose welfare he had consecrated his life, that his worth and usefulness obtained universal recognition and sympathetic support.

By the French Government he was made an Officer of the Academy, a distinction that is rarely conferred upon deaf people of foreign countries.

Francis Maginn was the fourth son of Rev. C. A. Maginn, M. A., Rector and Rural Dean of Castle-townroche, County of Cork, Ireland. He lost his hearing in early boyhood, but his inherent traits of character won for him an education far superior to the average of children who are handicapped by deafness. He was a nephew of Dr. William Maginn, the essayist, who was such a prominent figure in English literary circles, and a descendant of the poet Spenser, an heredity that may in a measure account for his fine literary abilities.

His funeral was largely attended by members of the clergy and by a great number of sorrowing deaf people whom he had in life befriended. Only a month previous they had shown their love for him by a handsome testimonial presentation.

AMONG the appropriations recommended by Governor Edge of New Jersey, is the sum of $123,383 for the State School for the Deaf at Trenton, for the fiscal year beginning July 1st, 1919.

GALLAUDET COLLEGE.

The Kappa Gamma Fraternity held its yearly initiation on the evening of January the twenty-fifth. Next morning, eight young men appeared at breakfast proudly wearing Frat pins. The new Brethren of the Fraternity are: William F. May, Edward W. Harmon, Thomas G. Matthew, Frank W. Rebal, all of the Class of '21; Maurice Wenner, John S. Marty, Archie Hartin, and Arthur L. Shawl, all of '22.

A considerable misstatement was made in this column recently, when the number of books in the College Library was given as one thousand. The number of volumes in the College Library is approximately five thousand, while it is the Literary Society's Library which contains a little over one thousand volumes.

ATHLETICS.

In coming from behind and nosing out the University of Virginia five, the Gallaudet basket ball tossers achieved one of the most brilliant victories it has scored in years. The final score was 38 to 32. Despite the eighteen fouls called, the game was one of the cleanest seen here for some time, for the majority of the penalties were inflicted in the closing stages of the game, when both teams were fighting desperately to win.

The unerring shooting of the visiting forwards put the U. of Va. out in the front, where they remained throughout the first half. But Downes, who registered fourteen of the eighteen points acquired by Gallaudet, kept the team within halting distance. The half ended with the score 23 to 18.

Coach Cooper's lecture between the halves had the desired effect on the Buff and Blue players. Slowly but surely they got games, crept on to even terms and then forged ahead never to be headed off. The victory, in a large measure is due to a combination of Downes on the offensive and Bouchard on the defensive. While the Virginians were centering the attack on the tall center, he would fit all over the court, passing the ball to his teammates, or dribbling it till he got within scoring distance, when he would toss it in the baskets. He alone registered thirty of the thirty-eight points credited to the team. But none the less effective was the guarding of the Bouchard. Seldom could the visitors get around him.

DETROIT.

News items of interest to the deaf of Michigan may be addressed to Mrs. C. C. Colby, 715 E. Jefferson Avenue, Detroit. Subscriptions will be received and forwarded to the DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL.

There was a large congregation to hear Rev. Mr. Allabough's sermon at the chapel of St. John's, Sunday, both morning and afternoon, January 12th.

A young man, Walter Frederick Carl, was baptized, Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Jones, sponsors. Mr. Carl is a product of the Rochester School and is an intelligent and earnest church worker. In the afternoon, Mr. Allabough preached a very stirring sermon on "Our Church." It was an earnest appeal to the congregation to be better fitted to get the best things out of life.

Three verses—25, 26, and 27—of Ephesians, Chapter V., were narrated. Two hearing little girls of Mr. and Mrs. Engel recited a hymn in signs, which was appreciated. Rev. Mr. Allabough left for Grand Rapids to preach on Monday, January 13th. Several visitors from out of the city were present. Among them was Mrs. Luella Carroll, of Columbus, Ohio.

Detroit is to be something of a Mecca for Americans the summer of 1920. The great conventions of the Protestant Episcopal and Lutheran Churches will bring thousands of delegates to the city.

Come and attend the business meeting and "Box Social" of the branch on Saturday evening, February 15th. You should be present at the meeting, ready to help those who are planning for a bigger and better Convention. Don't forget your wallet, as such an oversight would prove fatal—yes, there is going to be lots of fun.

It is understood that under the auspices of the Flint N. A. D. Branch, there will be a reunion at the Michigan School for the Deaf this coming June, and the employees of the Ford Motor Co., Ford Traction Co., Ship Builders Co., of this city, will, under the leadership of R. H. McLachlan, attend the reunion in a body. Each employee will wear a badge.

The desk of the local division No. 2 is repaired, repolished and looks like new, and placed in the home of Clyde Barnett, Secretary. Good Sandy remembered him with a blotter, inkstand, pen, paper, etc. You will find him at his desk when you call.

The situation as to common labor has materially changed since the boys have come home from overseas and non-employment among the deaf is increasing.

At a business meeting of the local division, No. 2, which was held Thursday evening, at the hall of the Detroit Association of the Deaf, a sick committee of three frats' was appointed. They are R. H. McLachlan for the heart of the city; D. Whitehead for the east side; and Wm. Cornish for the west side.

Old friends are pleased to note that Moise Chagnon is the president of the New Haven Frats.

Arthur Hansen and Mr. Greenfield returned home to Chicago, January 14th, after spending a few days in Detroit on both business and pleasure.

Frank Friday and wife have moved to Royal Oak to live. There are a good number of deaf living in Royal Oak, a quiet suburb of Detroit.

It is rumored that the handsome residence of Mr. and Mrs. M. Wilson and family was destroyed by fire recently. They lost all furniture and clothing.

Windsor, Canada, is ill. Over the river many deaf mutes are ill with "flu."

John Bennett, a young soldier, was in Detroit, on his way to visit his folks in Chicago, January 14th. He is a product of the Michigan School for the Deaf. On account of his deafness he was rejected by the U. S. board, so he went to Canada to enlist, which was a year ago. Afterward he went overseas, was a guard in France for several months, was taken sick with "flu," his temperature being 108. He was taken to the hospital in England. When he recovered he returned home with 650 wounded soldiers on the Uruguay.

He was one of the passengers on the Wolverine, which was wrecked last Sunday, January 12th, having escaped injury. He enjoyed talking with friends at the Dad Club, and the reporter also had the pleasure of conversing with him. He took the evening train for Chicago, Tuesday, January 14th, after which he will return to Toronto, Canada, to receive his discharge. He thinks he will come to Detroit again to live, as Detroit is the "City of Dynamics."

The local division, No. 2, has reserved Saturday evening, February 8th, for a "Lotto Social" at the Dad Club. Ralph Huhn is chairman. Snow has not yet arrived, and the little boys and girls are not the only ones who are disappointed, for all the Bears over at the Belle Isle Zoo are harboring a real grudge as to their lost amount of sleep, and naturally the bears are waiting for the weather man to bring all the snow and cold weather, so they can crawl into their dens and sleep till spring.

The little daughter, of Mr. and Mrs. G. Isaacson met with an accident one day last week, on her way home from school. She was playing with the neighbor's dog and evidently the dog became mad and bit her ear. Several stitches were taken and she is still under the doctor's care.

Chas. Huegel of Springfield, Ill., is in the city in search of employment since January 5th. His wife died last October 18th, at St. John's Hospital in Springfield, Ill., of pneumonia following an attack of Spanish Influenza. She was a former pupil of the Illinois School. Their daughter, Charlotte, is staying with her grandmother.

Mrs. Daniel Tellier, of Kalamazoo, attended the funeral of her cousin, E. K. Warren, multi-millionaire, in Three Oaks on Sunday, January 19th. He owned a big feather bone manufactory in Three Oaks.

Mrs. J. A. Moynihan, Esson St., Waterloo, Ont., would like to have the present address of her old classmate, Mrs. Edward G. Erickson, of Akron, Ohio.

Has King Winter abdicated? We are wondering where is winter spending the winter.

MRS. C. C. C.

AKRON, O.

Akron's Colony is still growing. At present there are some five hundred and fifty mutes here working for "good ole Goodyear," and still they come. Before long we hope to see a full thousand mutes settled in Akron.

The Goodyear Company still desires to secure deaf workmen, but does not desire to fool with "floaters." If you are out of work and want a job, "come to Goodyear," or write to A. D. Martin for information.

Social activities in Akron took a big jump for the better when the Frats rented the G. A. R. Hall for every Saturday night.

Already three informal dances have taken place, all of which were well attended.

The following clipping from the Akron Beacon Journal gives an accurate account of the doings at the "Mock Trial," held the last two Saturday nights.

A jury of six good men and true found "Slippery Bill" Plunder guilty of bribing the Goodyear Mutes to "throw" that football game to the Akron professionals, in "Judge" Ayers court, at G. A. R. hall Saturday night. "His dishonor" then proceeded to pigeon-hole the case on the ground it was a "mis-trial." The testimony of Gilbert, Trainor, Barron, Plunder and Thompson evoked endless amusement. Center Thompson, a chemist at the Goodyear, testified he noticed the pigskin was unusually light and elusive December 8th, and gave it as his expert opinion some one had pumped it full of hydrogen gas, to "make it lighter than air." Halfack Barron, who made the costly fumble after getting away with a clear field to the Akron goal, swore the pig, from which the pigskin was made, came to life at the instigation of some hypnotist in the grandstand and wiggled out of his vice-like grip. The jury consisted of Miss Cundiff, Mrs. Dunn, Marshall, Blake, Newman, Shannon Moore and Andrewski served as attorneys, Ayer as judge, Seinensohn as bailiff, and Meagher as clerk of court.

While the jury deliberated Andrewski rendered Colonel McRae's "In Flanders Fields," in a striking manner.

Miss Lena Druitt was elected the most popular lady, with 1,155 votes; Miss Kate Keeley running her a close second with 1,060. Misses Hodges, Jones, Cundiff, and Mrs. Dwyer, also ran.

Fears that Mrs. H. A. Bingham would have to undergo an operation for appendicitis proved groundless. She was confined for two weeks.

Clinton Ensworth, of Syracuse, is the latest collegian to come to Goodyear. He intends to board with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schmidt, who will move into their new home on Preston Avenue this week.

News items such as the above are printed twice a week in the Akron Beacon Journal, so although we have no paper of our own (we will some day). We are in the limelight just the same.

The Mute Athletes are still holding their own. The Regulars have not gotten under way. Having played one practice game against the Goodyear regulars. We have some first class material, however, and hope to get going in the next week.

The second team got off for a good start in the Factory league, winning the first three games before being defeated by the strong Flying Squadron team. Besides basket ball the mutes have two howling teams, one in the Factory league, one team being the girls, team.

The formal opening of the Mute Club House took place, on Thursday night, January 23d. The building was donated by the Goodyear Co., for the purpose of housing the club, it being understood that the fixture and upkeep of the place was to be worked out by The Goodyear Mutes Athletic Club. The place isn't quite finished yet, but with its two pool-tables, candy counter and numerous reading rooms, etc., it has already proved a great attraction to the boys, and one by one they are beginning to leave their old hangout in the pool halls and come to their own place.

A. D. Martin, our popular leader, has been appointed manager of the Club and will have an office therein, where he will be able to meet each and every one desiring to do business with him. With the aid of his trusty typewriter (which by the way, he is just learning to ride) he will soon be ready for any and all emergencies.

Dick Hill, ex-'21, of Gallaudet College, is making an effort to establish a Brass Band composed of Mutes.

There are several here who have played various musical instruments, and with the addition of Mr. Fancher, who he hopes to get back here as leader, will soon have an honest to goodness band.

Some of those desiring to become members of the proposed band and the instrument they will play are: McConnell, cornet, Hill, valve trombone; Dobson, brass horn; Clarke, cornet; Weiss, snare drum; and several others, who wish to learn.

McConnell, Hill, Dobson and Clarke, all played on the Gallaudet College band.

Mute applicants to join the "Flying Squadron" have been forced to wait for the return of Mr. Litchfield, Factory Superintendent, who is now in France.

Quite some confusion has resulted in the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Hill, of Texas and Virginia, and Mr. and Mrs. Hill, of Maryland. Frequently some one meets Hill of Texas, and says: "Saw your wife another with fellow just now." Recently, however, they have learned to tell the Hills apart by designating them the Long Tall Hill family and the Short Hills.

Among recent arrivals to Akron: Bros. Rhodes and Boyd of Washington Division, No. 46, N. F. S. D.

Cold weather has brought gobs of joy with its ice skating for the mutes from the north, while their less hardy brothers from the South are grinning and bearing it the best they can.

Guess I'll ring off now, as its rather unusual for a fellow to write a book the first time, so hoping you won't be disappointed in our poor way of expressing ourselves, will bid you adieu till next time.

"BEN HUR."

St. Louis Briefs

Mrs. Gibney, of Chicago, is visiting her son in this city. Young Mr. Gibney holds a high and responsible position with a leading local manufacturing concern.

The Evening School for the Deaf at Central High, Grand Ave. and School Street, in charge of Miss Clara L. Steidemann, now meets on Tuesday, Thursday and Friday evenings.

The next Social at St. Thomas Mission, 1210 Locust Street, will be on the evening of Washington's birthday—Saturday, February 22d. The regular lecture under the auspices of the Mission will be at 7:30 P. M., Saturday, Feb. 22d. There will be a special lecture on Sunday evening, February 23d.

Mr. St. Louis Division N. F. S. D. is preparing to celebrate the tenth anniversary of its organization next April. Mr. A. O. Steidemann heads the committee appointed to see that the occasion will be a memorable one in the annals of local fratdom.

The prevailing style in St. Louis babies seems to be boys. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stumpe, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bumb, are rejoicing over a little boy addition to their respective family circles.

The Bueltemann baby was baptized at St. Thomas Mission on a recent Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Stack and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Moegle being sponsors.

Mr. George M. Flint and family are removed to Dallas, Texas, where Mr. Flint is engaged in the insurance business. Mrs. Flint was Miss Mary K. Cloud, a former teacher in the Illinois State and Kansas City Day Schools for the deaf and daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Cloud.

The St. Louis Division, N. F. S. D., will give its annual masquerade dance on Saturday evening, Feb. 8th, at Strassberger Hall, Shenandoah and Grand Avenues. "Compton," "Fourth" and "Grand" cars pass the hall. Mr. Charles Haig heads the committee, having active management of the affair.

Lieut. John K. Cloud, of the American Red Cross Ambulance Corps, recently returned from extended service along the French and Italian battle fronts, told his war story before a capacity house at St. Thomas' Mission, on the evening of January 19th. The lecture was arranged on short notice, but it seems that nearly every body was present and every one was pleased.

Interest in the lecture was enhanced by the fact that the Lieutenant gave it in the sign language, of which he has an excellent command. A liberal display of relics from the battlefields was also a source of much interest.

BOSTON

The dance held on January 11th, under the auspices of the Opportunity Club in Mattapan, was a success in every way.

About eight showed up in spite of the frigid weather that night.

Besides dancing they had other games, in which most all indulged.

The last feature of the night was a prize waltz, which was won by Miss Nora Eagan and Mr. Willie Ahern.

On Thursday, the 22d, at the Parish House, the Altar Guild had their annual meeting, but as it was so late after transacting the business, there was no election of officers.

Right after the meeting they held a "Box Social," under the able direction of Mrs. Mercer, and assisted by Mrs. C. M. Chase.

When the people entered the Parish House, they pulled at one of the numerous strings to which other ends were attached to surprise packages containing many useful articles. About forty came, and within ten minutes all the packages were drawn.

Miss Ella C. Moore has so far collected about thirty-five dollars, which just pays for one year's care for a French War Orphan, and she is in hopes of getting thirty-six dollars more for another year's care of the Orphan. Send her contributions.

The Committee, of which Mr. Paul S. Mitchell is the Chairman, is preparing a big dance under the auspices of the Horace Mann Benevolent Association, on Friday, February 21st, the eve of Washington's Birthday, at Gainsborough Hall, on Huntington Avenue, opposite the New England Conservatory of Music and the Boston Y. M. C. A. Those who stay away will have lost a pleasant evening in congenial surrounding company.

We note that Mr. Hyman Lowenberg goes around smiling nowadays—the cause—the stork visited his home, and left a little baby-boy, Carlson. No wonder.

Mrs. William P. Browne and her two children, of Wolliston, are up and around, none the worse from an attack of the "flu."

Do not make any engagements for Wednesday, February 19th. Reserve that date for the Altar Guild. They are planning a pleasant time for you—a Tableaux Social, at the Parish House, from 8 to 10 P. M.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Hall, of Brookline, and Kittery, Me., have returned home after a pleasant sojourn among their New York friends.

Mr. John O'Rourke, of Haverhill, Mass., and several places, was seen around this vicinity lately, and we hear that he has gone down South—to New York and Washington, D. C. We wish him a pleasant journey.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Kornblum, who formerly resided in this vicinity, for the last two years or so had been among the millionaires in Pittsburg, Pa., are with us once more. They prefer the Hub to the Smoky City. Why not? January 26.

LOS ANGELES.

The Los Angeles Epiphatha Mission, which meets regularly in St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral Parish House, every Sunday at 3 P. M. for worship, and every Wednesday at 8 P. M. for social activities, recently held a memorial service for two deceased members—viz., Mr. Llewellyn and Mrs. F. K. Herrig. This service was attended by about sixty of our deaf friends.

Four of our young lady friends rendered very beautifully and gracefully the hymns for the occasions. Tributes to the memory of the departed were given by others, and a special sermon by the missionary was preached for the comfort of the bereaved.

The Epiphatha Mission also recently held a Gift Social. This was one of the most successful affairs of the season. Each person attending purchased a ticket for 25 cents. After a very enjoyable program of varied and interesting numbers, the audience lined up, and passing by a table full of useful articles previously donated, and each guaranteed to be worth 25 cents or more, each person selected one article, and so far as we can learn not one person was disappointed when the packet was opened. The total receipts of the evening were $28.50. All who were present expressed themselves as having had a most delightfully enjoyable social time, and hope that the Women's Guild will favor them with another such occasion before many more moons shall wax and wane.

PHILADELPHIA.

News items for this column should be sent to James S. Reider, 1338 North Dover Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

On Saturday evening, January 25th, St. Cecilia Council, No. 3, Ladies of De l'Epee, gave a dance at Grand Fraternity Hall that attracted a crowd of between two hundred and fifty and three hundred persons, including quite a number of hearing persons. Dancing, was the chief feature all evening and eight prizes were awarded to those who excelled in the art. The judges were three hearing persons. Needless to say the event provided a very enjoyable evening.

We are sorry to report that Bro. James F. Brady, Secretary of Philadelphia Division, No. 30, N. F. S. D., has been laid up with pneumonia; but the latest report received is that he is making favorable progress toward recovery. He resides at Audubon, a pretty suburb of Camden, N. J.

Brother Harry E. Stevens, of Merchantville, N. J., is also confined to bed by illness, the nature of which we have not yet learned. As Mr. Stevens is hopeful of being around again in a few more days, we may infer that he is also on the road to recovery.

Mrs. Julia Cowman, wife of Mr. George A. Cowman, died suddenly early on Sunday morning, January 26th, following an operation for appendicitis performed a few days before her death. No arrangements for the funeral have yet been made.

On Wednesday, January 22d, Mr. Henry P. Friemel left for Mystic, Ct., to take a position at the School for the Deaf as supervisor of boys and as an assistant instructor in carpentry.

The Men's Club of All Souls' Church held a social meeting at the Parish House on Tuesday evening, January 21st. This was the regular monthly meeting; the club also keeps the rooms open for social purposes every Saturday evening, when not otherwise used.

The house on Christian Street, which has been occupied by the family of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Lipsett for a number of years, has been sold by them, and with the proceeds they have bought a more modern house in West Philadelphia, where they expect to move some time in March.

It is proposed to inaugurate an "Every Member Campaign for Personal Service," in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, from February to the end of March, 1919, and every parish is asked to appoint a Parish Committee to assist in the work.

All Souls' committee is only partially made now, but when complete we shall announce it in full. As the object is "to enlist every member of the Church for prayer, service and giving, in winning the world for Christ," every one who is willing can be helpful, and it ought to be a blessed privilege to help so. Circulars are being distributed, which explain the plan of the campaign fully. Get one at All Souls'!

A movement is on foot by representatives of the allied clubs of Philadelphia to arrange an outing at Maple Grove on Saturday, May 31st, the day after Memorial Day. A self constituted committee has been formed, which held its initial meeting at All Souls' Parish House on Tuesday evening, January 21st. Mr. Arthur Fowler was chosen Chairman, and Mr. Elmer E. Scott, Treasurer. Other meetings will be held from time to time to arrange all necessary details of the outing or picnic.

Mr. W. Scott and Mr. B. Miller, of Christian, Pa., spent two days in the city recently, as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Wilson.

Mr. Jacob Lupolt, of Coatesville, Pa., was a visitor at All Souls' on Sunday, January 26th.

A question of personal privilege, or whatever you choose to call it—A certain person hung a display card with the inscription "Welcome Home Boys," on the front window of his house. Then came a second person, who asked the first person, if he had a boy in the service "over there." He replied, "No." Well then, asked the second person, why do you display the card, when you have no boy to welcome home, meaning that the card was only meant for those homes that have one or more boys over there. But the idea never occurred to the first person that such a narrow interpretation would be put on the inscription, and he wonders if the act was not a question of simple personal privilege.

[It is perfectly proper for any one to exhibit such a card. The welcome is extended to the returning soldier boys, and no matter how proud a family may be of their brave offspring, the privilege of exhibiting the sign does not belong

President H. Cloud, Mo.

Treasurer J. W. Howson, Cal.
Vice-Presidents C. G. Lamson, Ohio
Executive Board: Jay C. Howard, Minn., Olof Hanson, Wash.

[OFFICIAL.]

The following N. A. D. Branches have reported their list of officers, recently elected for the current year:

Detroit Branch:—
Thomas J. Kennedy, President.
Robert V. Jones, Vice-President.
Daniel I. Whitehead, Secretary.
Augustus R. Schneider, Treasurer.
Frank Allera, Sergeant.

Members of the Local Committee of the N. A. D. Convention, to be held in Detroit next year, and of the Detroit Branch, are co-operating with great goodwill towards the success of the coming convention—concerning which full and timely publicity will be given in the JOURNAL. The Detroit Convention promises to be a great and notable gathering.

Flint Branch:—
Bert E. Maxson, President.
Mrs. Clyde E. Beach, Vice-President.
Otto W. Buby, Secretary.
Floyd Crippen, Treasurer.

The Local Committee of the Detroit Convention can always depend upon the enthusiastic co-operation and substantial support of members of the Flint Branch.

Duluth Branch:—
John DeLance, President.
Mrs. Ingal Dahl, Vice-President.
Mrs. J. C. Howard, Sec'y-Treas. (re-elected.)

The New Year watch party and basket social netted this Branch a neat sum.

It was my personal good fortune to meet with the members of the Duluth Branch last summer, at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Howard, a most enjoyable occasion, to visit the Branch's cabin in the pine woods near the outskirts of the city, and to see the interesting sights of Duluth from a touring car, kindly provided by the Branch's President, Mr. Joseph Filiatrault.

The cabin, I am sorry to say, was totally destroyed by the great forest fire which visited that section of the State last autumn.

The following is the major part of a communication recently received from Mr. Willis Hubbard, treasurer of the N. A. D. Endowment fund:

"A list of members of the N. A. D., who are entitled to life membership in the Association under Sec. 4, Article 1, of the By Laws:—

B. B. Sheffield.
Cora E. Coe.
Sabra T. Wilson.
Edwin W. Frisbee.
James H. Cloud.
Annie M. Roper.
Albert S. Hoyer.

"Mr. Sheffield, hearing, of Fairbault, Minn., through President Howard in 1917, sent in a contribution of $100, and on the suggestion of Mr. Howard $25 of this was set aside as a life membership fee. Each of the others in the list made a personal payment of $25, with the exception of Mr. Frisbee, whose payment consisted of collections made by him.

"Several drafts have been received representing considerable more than $25. Whether the senders had acted merely as forwarding agents or had been personally active in raising the amounts, I am unable to say."

At the Colorado Springs Convention of the N. A. D., the Rev. A. W. Mann, Dr. G. T. Dougherty, Dr. T. F. Fox and Mr. E. A. Hodgson were elected to life membership by the Convention.

The number of paid-up life memberships in the N. A. D. is growing, but not as rapidly as befits a National Association with a membership approximating 1500 of the best people in the world. Will not those who intend to qualify as members speed up their payments, so there may be a long list of such by the time of the Detroit Convention next year. It will require some self-denial, some self-sacrifice—the same as every other worthy cause. The endowment of the N. A. D. is chiefly our own cause and concerns ourselves—the deaf.

Owing to the removal of Secretary Roberts of Washington, and the congested freight conditions which prevented his getting his office equipment and records in time, there was no issue of the NAD for November. This issue, however, will be combined with the next regular issue due in February.
